Jerome accepts briefs in all areas of law but focuses principally on commercial litigation, equity and class action proceedings.

Jerome has been briefed unled in final and interlocutory hearings in the Supreme Court and other jurisdictions and regularly appears as junior counsel in larger matters, such as the proceedings arising from the collapse of Dick Smith Electronics, and the Takata Airbags class action in which he is part of the counsel team acting for Nissan.

Prior to coming to the Bar, Jerome was a Senior Associate at Allens, where his most significant matters included the defence of QBE in a shareholder class action and the defence of Nissan in class action proceedings concerning Takata airbags. Jerome was also previously the Tipstaff to the Hon. Justice Ball in the Equity Division of the Supreme Court of NSW.
