Tim joined the NSW Bar in 2019 after a distinguished academic career and accepts briefs in all areas of law. He is regularly briefed in key competition matters. He does significant appellate work: his recent appearances include Williams v Toyota in the High Court and ACCC v J Hutchinson Pty Ltd in the Full Federal Court. He is frequently briefed to advise and appear in complex trusts matters, including in family law property proceedings. Tim also undertakes extensive unled work.

Before being called to the Bar, Tim was a lecturer in modern history and a fellow of St. Catharine's College at the University of Cambridge, where he completed his MPhil and PhD as a Cambridge Australia Scholar. His monograph was published by Princeton University Press in 2017 and widely reviewed. His journal articles and reviews have appeared in Cambridge Law Journal, American Historical Review and Sydney Law Review. He holds first class honours in law from the University of Melbourne. He now lectures in law and history at Sydney Law School.
